Guidelines

- Participants may arrive and begin cooking as early as 7 am
- Chili must be ready to serve at approximately Noon
- Chili must be prepared on-site (Ingredients such as onions, peppers, etc may be prepared off-site)
- Participants should bring their own butane or cooking burners
- Each participant will be provided a 6 ft table and 2 chairs, tasting cups, napkins, and spoons. There is limited electricity, therefore electrical outlets will only be provided for appliances needed in order to prepare your chili.

The Judging Criteria will be based on the following:

Texture: texture of meat should not be tough or mushy

Flavor: chili should have good flavoring (not too hot or mild, nice balance)

Consistency: smooth combo of meat and gravy, not too thin or thick

Spice/Taste: blending of spices and how well the meat is permeated

Aroma: personal preference of the judge
